

BREDL

Blue Ridge Environmental Defense League

Pastor Cary Rodgers, Community Organizer, 704-465-8504, rogersoc01@yahoo.com

Recommended Key Committee Descriptions

Communication Committee: Responsible for developing and implementing communication methods, and actions in order to get important group information to members, committees, and the community at large.

Media Committee: Responsible for developing media content (written, audio, or video) for radio, tv, newspapers, social media, or group's web-page and Facebook page. Also responsible for sending out press releases and doing press conferences when needed.

Fund-raising Committee: Responsible for implementing strategies to raise funds for group's environmental campaigns.

Outreach Committee: Responsible implementing strategies to reach out to local organizations, clubs, neighborhoods, and churches through flyers, speaking engagements, etc... Also responsible to alert others of schedules meetings.

Legal Committee: Responsible for research, writing, and reporting legal strategies that group can use to strengthen its environmental campaigns locally.

Action and Protest Committee: Responsible for developing and implementing action/protest strategies for the purpose of educating and bringing awareness of environmental issues that threaten our community.

Research Committee: Responsible for researching and reporting environmental issues that educates group and it's committees for the purpose of implementing appropriate strategies as needed.

Recommended Leadership Positions

President

Vice President

Treasurer

Secretary

Directors for each Committees